

High Desert Montessori School

A Public Charter School in Reno, Nevada

Who We Are

High Desert Montessori School is a dynamic public Montessori Charter school that serves 427 students from toddlers to eighth grade. We have a strong team of 46 committed staff members.

Where We Are Located

HDMS is located in Reno, Nevada. Less than an hour from Lake Tahoe and just minutes from the Sierra Nevada Mountains, Reno offers easy access to a variety of sporting and outdoor activities and some of the most spectacular landscapes in the west. Reno hosts over 100 festivals a year and is rich in culture and events.

Who We Hire

Our school serves students from Primary through Middle School. We hire lead guides/teachers and assistants at all levels. Our school is currently entering an expansion phase and we are accepting applications at all levels. We hire both trained Montessori teachers and certified teachers who are willing to attend Montessori training.

What We Offer Our Employees

We offer tuition assistance for our teachers to attend Montessori training. We offer an excellent benefits package, which includes medical, dental, vision and life insurance and membership in the Nevada Public Employees Retirement System. We offer a very competitive starting salary which aligns with our local school district (Washoe County).
